

The Night-Born
Jack London

Ten short stories on various themes and subjects, all more or less bizarre.

In The Benefit of the Doubt, a crooked judge gets a lesson in justice.

The Night-Born is about a woman who draws inspiration to change her life from an article she chanced to read.

War and To Kill A Man lead the listener in, wondering how the stories will end.

When The World Was Young is the story of Primitive Man and Civilized Man sharing the same body.

And so on. Each story is unique and thought-provoking. (Summary by TriciaG)
